

Most popular sporting activities among children

If you're looking to set up a new lunchtime or afterschool sports club in 2016, the latest annual survey into the sporting habits of Australian six- to 13-year-olds offers some inspiration. For the first time, soccer has overtaken swimming as the most popular sporting activity. Here are the three most popular sports, by participation rate.

SOCCER: 50 per cent of children surveyed reported playing soccer

SWIMMING: 48 per cent of children surveyed reported going swimming

CYCLING: 37 per cent of children surveyed reported going cycling
