

Student wellbeing: Physical Education classes

The latest cycle of PISA (Programme for International Student Assessment) explored the wellbeing of 15-year-old students. Survey topics included Physical Education classes at school. Here are results from a selection of the 70+ countries and economies that participated.

Physical Education at School

Number of days per week students reported they attend PE classes

3+days

2 days

1 day

0 days

