

Child online safety

Results of a cyber safety survey of 145 426 children and adolescents, conducted over three years with respondents from 30 different countries, have recently been released. Here are some of the findings related to cyber safety

Global cyber risk exposure

Top 10 safest countries

The top 10 countries for online safety ranking is based on six areas of safety

-  Spain
-  Australia
-  Malaysia
-  Singapore
-  Korea
-  Italy
-  Japan
-  Turkey
-  India
-  China

*Sampling in these countries are biased towards private schools

Australia's ranking in six areas of online safety

3rd SOCIAL INFRASTRUCTURE
(i.e. government policies and industry practices)

4th CONNECTIVITY
(i.e. meaningful access to internet)

6th DIGITAL COMPETENCY
(i.e. ability to use technology safely and responsibly)

11th CYBER RISKS
(i.e. cyberbullying, risky content and contact with strangers)

11th DISCIPLINED DIGITAL USE
(i.e. excessive screen time and mobile phone ownership)

15th GUIDANCE AND EDUCATION
(i.e. protective support and direction from parents and schools)