

Proficiency in financial literacy

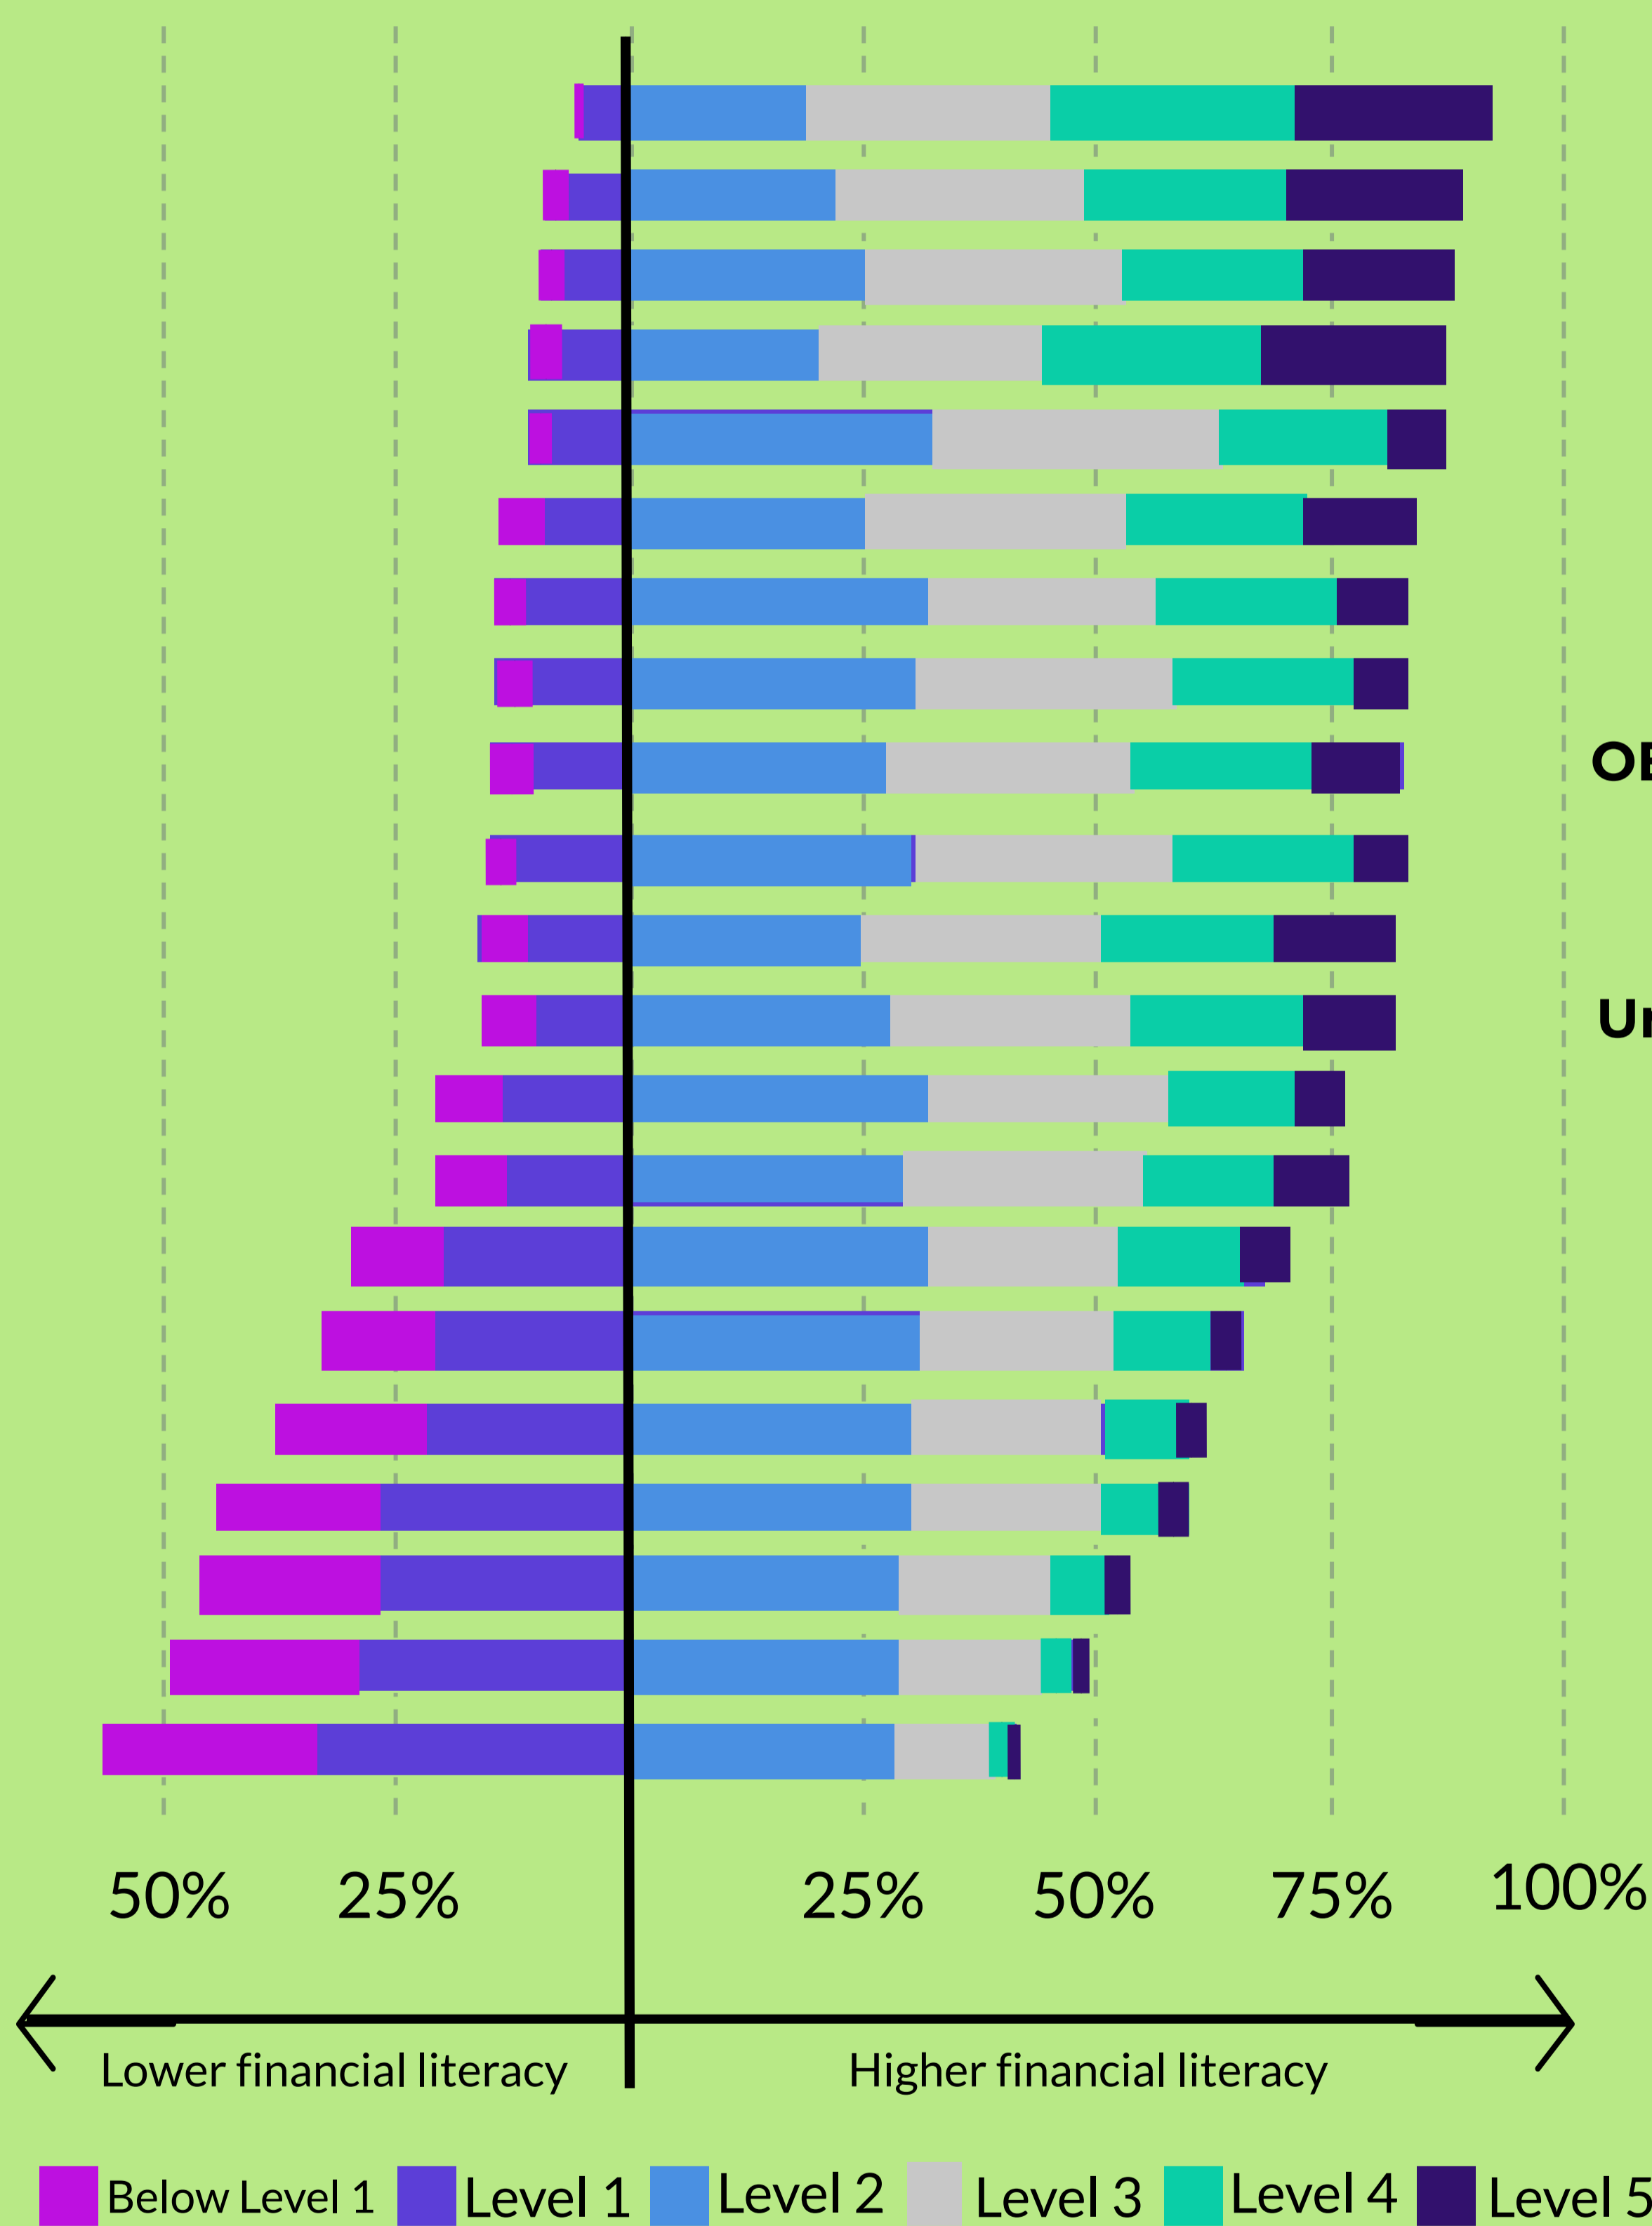

The Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) examines student understanding about money matters. Here, we look at 15-year-old students' understanding of and attitudes towards money in the 20 countries and economies that participated in this optional portion of the assessment in 2018.

Level of financial literacy

Level 1 is at the lower end of proficiency and Level 5 is at the higher end

Interest in money matters

Percentage of students who agree that 'money matters are not relevant for me right now'.
