

STUDENTS LIVING WITH DISABILITY

A recent survey* conducted by Mission Australia highlights how the experiences of young people with a disability differ to young people living without disability. Topics included inclusion, issues of personal concern and post-school plans. Here, we look at how some of their responses compare.

* Responses were received from 25 000 people aged 15-19, and 1623 of these reported living with a disability.

Students with disability Students without disability

Engagement in education

Experiences of bullying

Of the young people who indicated they experienced bullying in the last 12 months:

Community inclusion

Top 5 personal concerns*

* Respondents who indicated they were either extremely or very concerned about these issues

