

Learning about other countries and cultures

What opportunities do school students have to learn about other cultures, perspectives, and global events? Students participating in PISA 2018 (Programme for International Student Achievement) were asked 10 questions about the different learning activities they are exposed to. Here are the OECD average results.

