

AUSTRALIA★ 767.8
● 838.8COSTA RICA★ 799.5
● 1,248NEW ZEALAND★ 1,230
● 760THE ROLE OF A TEACHER
AROUND THE WORLD*EXPECTATIONS
OF TEACHING
HOURS*SPAIN★ 871.3
● 665.1NORWAY★ N/A
● 522.5

The newly-released Education at a Glance 2022: OECD Indicators reports on the state of education in OECD and partner countries.

In this infographic, we take a look at the net statutory teaching time* in hours, per year, in public institutions across the world for pre-primary and upper-secondary, general programs.

IRELAND★ N/A
● 699.7BRAZIL★ 800
● 800JAPAN★ N/A
● 507.5KEY:

- ★ Pre-primary
- Upper-secondary, gen. programs

POLAND★ 1,095
● 483.3OECD AVERAGES:★ 987.2
● 684.1UNITED STATES★ 1,010.7
● 965.7KOREA★ 767.1
● 543.6FRANCE★ 900
● 720

* 'Statutory teaching time' refers to the hours that a full-time teacher is expected to work each year as set by policy, rather than the 'actual teaching time' which reflects workloads.